

Emergency numbers

112

For any emergency you can call 112 and operators who speak French, English, and over 30 other languages will be able to get you the appropriate service, whether it is an ambulance, the police, or firemen.

18

Fire Department & Accidents

To report a dangerous situation or accident concerning people or property and receive a swift response

15

The French Emergency Medical Assistance Service (SAMU)

To call out a medical team to a medical emergency as well as to be referred to a round-the-clock health facility

17

Police

To report a crime that requires an immediate police response like violence or assault, burglary, pickpocketing, or mugging.

114

Rescue Service for deaf, hard of hearing and/or unable to speak people

If you are a victim or witness of an emergency situation and require emergency assistance you can call the 114. This number can also be reached by fax and SMS.